DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: on page 7, line 20, "member 25" should be "member 22". Appropriate correction is required.

3. The incorporation of essential material in the specification by reference to a foreign application or patent, or to a publication is improper. Applicant is required to amend the disclosure to include the material incorporated by reference. The amendment must be accompanied by an affidavit or declaration executed by the applicant, or a practitioner representing the applicant, stating that the amendatory material consists of the same material incorporated by reference in the referencing application. See In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 569, 179 USPQ 157 (CCPA 1973); In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 579, 179 USPQ 163 (CCPA 1973); and In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 577, 179 USPQ 167 (CCPA 1973).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3612

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the well known prior art of Figure 1.

The well known prior art of Figure 1 discloses a damper assembly of a glove box 11, comprising: a fixing member 13 fixed to the rear part of the glove box 11 by screws (not numbered but shown for extending through holes 14), the fixing member 13 having a fitting protrusion 16 formed at one side thereof; and a damper 15 having a fitting piece (not numbered, but clearly shown in Figure 1) formed at one side thereof, the fitting protrusion 16 being fitted in the fitting piece of the damper 15 so that the damper is fixed to the fixing member 13.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the well known prior art of Figure 1 in view of Korean Patent Publication No. 2002-045110.

The well known prior art of Figure 1 lack the fixing member being made of a plastic material.

Korean Patent Publication No. 2002-045110 discloses a fixing member for a damper for a glove box being made of a plastic material.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided the fixing member of the well known prior art (Figure 1) out of a plastic material as taught by Korean Patent Publication No. 2002-045110 in order to decrease tolerance distribution and thus instability of the glove box and further to reduce manufacturing costs of the damper assembly.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
